

inDemand Community - Application Form

inDemand project is looking for 12 regions interested to uptake the created and validated co-creational model for the health sector.

Regions have to apply through a Consortium integrated by three different stakeholders: one challenger, one funder and one supporter.

The community is open to receive more committed parties, but these 12 regions will benefit from a closer mentoring and a tailored support throughout the project's life cycle.

Please fill in the following short questionnaire before 31 August 2018.
