The challenger organization gets several implicit benefits from its participation in the co-creation. One of them is to lead the development or customization of a solution towards their interest or particular use case, guiding the innovation in Health from their own priorities.

On the other hand, with the work done in the co-creation pilot, the feasibility assessment of the solution studied is achieved under real conditions of use, in its real implementation environment. This fact saves to the entity challenger the cost of the feasibility study before implementing a new solution in healthcare.

If the pilot achieves sufficient cases, it is possible that the entity challenger may also conduct an economic impact analysis that assesses the scalability of the solution and the curve of Return Of Investment (ROI) in said applied technology.

Given that the company will be the exclusive owner of the Intellectual Property Rights of the final development, the participation of the challenger organization in its co-creation will have its compensation to guarantee the sustainability of this model.

- Challenger (or inDemand partners) receive right to use the co-created solution without separate compensation for 1 years
- Challenger organization is entitled to receive product and software updates to the co-created solution for 1 years.
- Challenger organization will not be invoiced for the user support or maintenance costs for the period of 1 year. After this period, the invoiced maintenance costs will be relative to actual maintenance costs of the solution.
- In case the Solver and the Challenger want to develop the solution further together, the Challenger will not be invoiced of the development work during the period of 1 years.

The Committee will pay special attention to the protection of personal data, observing the requirements established by the new European data protection Regulation \(EU 2016/679\) and each national law. Among others an Impact Analysis document, with identified risks and proposed measures, will be required to the Solver.

In the case of involving patients, the Ethics Committee will focus on the informed consent of the participating patients and whether the children will be involved in the permission of the children who are minors and the framework of participation of their parents.

If deemed necessary, the Solver will be asked to anonymize the data according to mechanisms established by the Challenger. At any case, the Solver cannot exploit or make use of the data for different purposes than the ones agreed with the Challenger and, after pilot end, all copies of the data have to be transferred back to the Challenger or deleted.

13.2 Technical

Routine audit execution capabilities that include, at least, user access records to data and services, task execution records, and component configuration change records.

The anonymized data can be hosted by the solver. If the complexity of the connections were too high or the personal data could be at risk, the data should be hosted in local servers of the challenger organization. This will be established in a technical session at the beginning of the project.
